CITY MOVES WHO'S SWITCHING JOBS

BT

Trudy Norris-Grey has been appointed as managing director of strategy and transformation with BT Wholesale.

Norris-Grey joins BT from Sun Microsystems where she was president for UK and Ireland. Prior to that, she held senior roles at Oracle and Kodak. The newly-created role combines BT Wholesale's customer-led strategic thinking, including business planning and transformation.

Allied Gold

The gold exploration firm has appointed Richard Lewis Johnson, 57, as managing director with immediate effect. The appointment follows Johnson's appointment as chief executive on 7 January 2008.

Johnson currently owns 25,000 fully paid ordinary shares in Allied Gold, representing 0.007% of the total shares on issue.

American Express

Niall Mackin has been appointed as vice president, UK sales with immediate effect at the credit card giant.

In his new role, Mackin is responsible for the UK sales strategy for the national and mid-market segments, leading an established team to drive growth in the region. Mackin joined American Express in 1993 and has held a number of senior positions, managing client-focused roles within both commercial card and business travel.

Air Partner

The provider of private aviation services to industry, commerce, governments and private individuals worldwide has announced that Aubrey Adams will join the board as non-executive chairman.

Adams joins from Savills, the global real estate service provider, which is listed on the London Stock Exchange. Adams joined Savills as managing director in 1990.
